Gender equality indicator 2: Gender composition of governing bodies

2 Your organisation, or organisations you are reporting on, will have a governing body/board as defined in the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012 (Act). (In the Act, a governing body is defined as “the board of directors, trustees, committee of management, council or other governing authority of the employer”.) For the purposes of reporting under the Act, this question relates to the ultimate or ‘highest’ governing body for your organisation. NB: if your governing body/board is located overseas, it still needs to be included.

For private or publicly listed companies, you will have one or more directors or a board of directors.

For trusts, the trustee is the governing body/board.

For partnerships, the governing body/board is likely to comprise all or some (if elected) partners.

For organisations whose governing body/board is the same as their parent entity’s governing body/board, it is still deemed to have a governing body/board.

For religious structures, you may have a canonical advisor, bishop or archbishop.

For other structures that do not fall into any of the above categories, your committee of management would be considered your governing body/board.

2.1 Please complete the table below, ensuring data entered is based on the instructions in each column header. For each organisation, enter the number of women and men on that governing body/board (not percentage). If a target has been set to increase the representation of women on any of the governing bodies listed, please indicate the % target and the year it is to be reached.

If your organisation's governing body/board is the same as your parent entity's governing body/board, you will need to enter your organisation's name but the details of your parent entity's governing body/board in the table below.

At Suncorp, we recognise that women in business are great for business. Our commitment to a more gender balanced workforce allows us to improve diversity of thought which provides an environment for our People to realise their true potential. This then translates to better customer service, increased shareholder returns and more meaningful community engagement.

Our FY16-18 Diversity and Inclusion Plan continues to have a strong focus on driving gender equality in our workforce and increasing women in senior leadership roles. Our females in senior leadership results as at the 31st March 2016 (38.8%) clearly show the impact our initiatives have had, especially when compared to the FY12 result of 32.8%.

Our Diversity Council plays a key role in driving the diversity and inclusion agenda, including the focus on gender equality with Michael Cameron, Group CEO and Managing Director as the chair.

Our Program of Work

- We have continued to progress over 250 women through our Women in Leadership Program 'Accelerate'. Our data now shows that 25% of the senior women who have attended the Accelerate program have progressed their career in comparison to those women of similar seniority who have not attended the program.
 - We continue to offer informal and formal mentoring opportunities for women in leadership roles.
 - To further support the career advancement of female firstline leader talent we offer female sponsorship through Suncorp's executive leadership team.
 - We have several female leaders that are attending the 'Emerging Leader's Program' facilitated by the Dream Collective
 - We have set up a volunteer 'Buddy program' to better support our women transition to and from the workplace during parental leave
 - We have launched a Domestic Violence Guideline to ensure women who are impacted by domestic violence understand the support mechanisms available to them
- We ensure gender diversity in our recruitment practices by having at least one female and one male on the shortlist for senior leadership roles.
 - We offer various flexible working options to support employees in their various career and life stages.
 - During talent review we ensure a diversity lens is applied. The aim is to consider whether strong, high potential women are considered in succession planning and enhance their capabilities through targeted leadership development opportunities.
 - We offer a women in leadership network to provide opportunities for female leaders to network, build their profile, share experiences and learnings and to highlight potential career progression opportunities.
