The Board shall comprise no more than thirteen directors and no less than five directors, or such other numbers as the Constitution of the Company allows, of whom a majority must be independent, non-executive directors as defined in accordance with the Board policy on director independence.

Chairman

The Board will elect one of its members to be Chairman of the Board. It is intended that the Chairman of the Board:

- shall be elected by directors;
- shall be a non-executive director; and
- shall be independent.

The role of the Chairman is to:

- lead the Board;

Meetings

The Board shall meet as often as deemed necessary by the directors in order to fulfil their duties and responsibilities as directors and as dictated by the needs of the business. It is expected that under normal circumstances the Board will usually meet monthly.

The Company's Constitution governs the regulation of Board meetings and proceedings.

The non-executive directors of the Board shall meet together without the presence of executive directors at least four times per year to discuss matters in relation to the Company's executive management.

Conflict of Interest

  - declare that conflict of interest;

- not receive the relevant Board papers;
- not be present at the meeting when the matter is considered; and
- not participate in any decision on the matter,

unless the Board Chairman (or if the relevant director is the Board Chairman, either the Board Risk Committee chairman or the Board Audit Committee chairman) determines otherwise. However, in the case of a material personal interest, the level of involvement of the relevant director shall be determined by the Board (excluding the relevant director).

Professional Advice

The Board collectively and each director individually, is entitled to engage independent professional advice, at the Company's expense, if considered necessary to fulfil their duties and responsibilities.
