

Suncorp's COVID-19 vaccination requirements for Australian employees

Suncorp Group has shared its expectations and requirements in relation to COVID-19 vaccination for employees and suppliers.

Suncorp Group requires all Australian-based employees, contractors and third parties who interact with customers face-to-face, those who undertake authorised travel for work, and any new starters (irrespective of role) to be vaccinated.

As an essential service, our branches have remained open and our frontline claims teams have continued to support our customers.

As one of Australia's largest workforces, we play a vital role in helping keep our community safe. By taking these steps to protect our people, their families and households, our customers and the community, we will help reduce the impact of COVID-19.

Over the coming year, our focus will continue to be on providing a healthy and safe working environment for our people and supporting the wellbeing of customers.
